

Adoption of Luigi

When we first made the decision to adopt in January 2017 and started looking into the adoption process, we were quite disheartened when we heard about the long time-frames. So to have Gigi home with us just over a year later has been more than we could ever have dreamt of. He has made our lives complete and we will forever be grateful to Agenzija Tama who were there for us every step of the way. Adoption is a beautiful - but at times difficult - journey. Having them to support us and help to avoid unnecessary delays was such a blessing. We couldn't recommend them more highly to anyone considering adoption.
